SHRINERS IN LINE

These are the officers of Aloha Temple, dressed in their best suit of clothes, including Fez.

The parade of the Shriners was the feature of this day of 1907 in Honolulu. It was a great parade and an excellent turn-out for Aloha Temple and the visitors who are in the city. The fun started at the Masonic Temple, where the candidates were assembled with the Arab Patrol. The combination then went over to the K. of P. Hall on Beretania, from which place the procession started shortly before 2 o'clock.

The officers of the Temple were in regalia and the Patrol did some fancy stunts in memory of the great time the boys had at Los Angeles. The candidates were, of course, a particular object of attention and furnished much good-natured amusement. No one got mad. None could afford to. History records that a man did once get mad. Life has not been half worth living, for him, since that time.

The procession moved down Fort street to King street, to the Capitol, where they were photographed, to Hotel, to Alakea, to Beretania, to the K. of P. Hall, where the initiatory exercises are taking place this afternoon.

The array of candidates included the following: John T. Moir, Wm. McKay, Captain Pierce, H. H. Renton, Wm. T. Robinson, Captain Clark, Frank Hatch, A. Blom, E. Monroe, R. H. Trent, Mr. Laird and Mr. Ross.

It is distinctly an out-of-town-other-island gathering and just one short of thirteen, so that good luck will supposedly attend their way.

Extra Steamer Coming

The Matson Navigation Co., Castle & Cooke, Ltd., agents, have made arrangements for a special trip of their liner Enterprise, to leave San Francisco Dec. 10th for this city. It will be a great help for Honolulu merchants, inasmuch as the Enterprise will arrive here in time for the display of Christmas goods, and she is expected, by all reports, to have a full cargo.

Many of the residents of the other islands, as well as Oahu, are going to take advantage of this by having their children who are on the mainland at school spend their Christmas vacation at home, arriving here on Dec. 17th and returning by the Hawaiian on the 31st.

VALUABLE PROPERTY OFFERED AT AUCTION

A large gathering of prominent people came together this noon at the auction rooms of J. F. Morgan to witness the sale of two valuable pieces of property, namely the Isenberg residence at Punahou and the H. E. Cooper place at Pawa. The Isenberg place, it was stated had cost $128,000, the house alone being valued at $90,000. It was realized that a sale would have to be made at a sacrifice. Auctioneer Stevens announced that he had been offered a bid for $39,000, but no bid was made beyond that and the place was withdrawn. One of the conditions of the sale was that what ever the bid was it would have to be approved by Mrs. Isenberg before a sale was made.

On the Cooper place, valued at about $15,000, only one bid was made of $5000, and the place was withdrawn.

STRUCK BY AUTO

An automobile accident happened on King street in front of Emmet's store this afternoon at about 1:30 o'clock. A Chinese boy, who is thought to be a student of Mills Institute, was crossing the street from makal towards the Young Hotel, when suddenly an automobile, driven by Miss McCandless, came along and struck him. He was knocked down on the sidewalk, wounding his head. Miss McCandless took him in her automobile to Dr. Herbert on Alakea street for treatment. The wound is not serious.

ACHI'S POLITICS

AN OPEN LETTER TO SHERIFF LAUKEA

My Dear Sheriff Laukea.

Sir:—In the P. C. Advertiser of this morning I see that you stated that "I and the class I stand for are spoilsmen, pure and simple," etc.

I admire you for your declaration, and half believe that you are not a spoilsman. I only wish that you had declared that before the last election.

Did not you come to my house on several occasions before the last election and in the presence of my friends, who are the people you now say that you would not have around you, and to whom you yourself made promises which I believed you would carry out?

Did not you on those occasions promise me and my friends, that in case we should give you our support, and if you would be elected, you would appoint those whom I might recommend on the Police Force? Did not you make those promises without any request from me?

Did not you come to my office after your election, in the presence of some of my friends, and told me to prepare my list?

Am I a spoilsman, or are you not a spoilsman?

Were you not a Republican, and because you failed to get the position of Treasurer of the Territory, which position I earnestly worked hard for, you withdrew from the Republican party, and became a Home ruler?

Did I try to get any salary office in the Territory, or any other Government job in the Hawaiian Islands?

Did not you, after knowing that you had no chance to get an office in the Home Rule party, withdraw from it, and become a Democrat?

Did not you join the Democratic party with the idea that it was the first step for you to get an office?

Now at this late day, while you are enjoying the fat office of Sheriff of the County of Oahu, through the Democratic party, I believe you know in your mind that your Democratic friends have no further use for you, because you know that instead of you taking advice from your Democratic friends, you threw them out, and followed the advice of the P. C. A.

Now you propose to start a Good Government League. Why?

Are you not thinking of getting the nomination for Mayor for yourself, and the nomination for Sheriff for your friend, the P. C. A. of Hawaii?

Is Achi the Spoilsman or Sheriff Laukea? The echo cries: Laukea! Laukea!

Is it an abomination to you for me or my friends to be around you? If so, your body must be a holy one.

To my belief the American politic is that when you promise something to your workers, you should carry it out.

Very respectfully yours,

W. C. ACHI.

The above letter was flung forth additional offices it would seem by Achi this morning, and his followers strongly echo the sentiments expressed in it, condemning the Sheriff strongly for not rewarding political assistance with jobs.

"I really see very little in the letter that is worth while talking about," said Laukea this morning. "It is true that Achi promised me his support in the campaign, and I went to his house to see him about it, as I would do in any case of that kind. It is also true that I said that I would place in office men whom he recommended. I am also always glad to consider the recommendations of anyone, but the men who are recommended must be fitted to hold office in order to get appointed by me, and that holds good with regard to Achi as well as with everybody else. I certainly never gave Achi carte blanche to have made whatever appointments he wanted on the police force. I do not either seek the position of Mayor, and am not working for it."

If the Achi forces ever had any idea of deposing Chairman Hustace of the Board of Supervisors, they have certainly not any such intentions now. They state openly that the only move that they know will be made will be the divorce of the road and the garbage departments, and say that a resolution recommending that such action will be taken, will probably be brought up at the next meeting of the Board of Supervisors. But even in this matter, they say, the Supervisors are acting on their own initiative, and that Achi has no connection whatever with the move. In view of the fact that the sole object of the move is merely to create

GEORGE KEKAUOHA GETS FOUR MONTHS

But Mormon Defendant Loses Franchise And Job

"The sentence of the Court is that you be imprisoned in the Oahu jail for a period of four months, and pay the costs of court."

The above sentence was pronounced this morning by Judge Dole on George K. Kekauoha, who was yesterday afternoon convicted of adultery by the United States District Court Jury. Previously Judge Perry, representing the defendant, had made a strong plea for as light a sentence as possible, while United States District Attorney Breckons had argued in favor of the prisoner being punished in proportion to the degree of his offense.

But the four months in jail is probably the least part of the prisoner's punishment. George Kekauoha is a good deal of a politician on the other side of the island, in addition to being Road Supervisor for the District of Koolaula. Although he got only four months, the offense of which he is convicted is punishable by three years' imprisonment, and the law provides that a man who is convicted of an offense punishable with imprisonment with or without hard labor for a term of one year or more loses his rights of citizenship and the right of franchise.

George Kekauoha, therefore, is no longer a qualified voter and must per-

KAAPANA'S SENTENCE TWENTY-FIVE YEARS

Hawaiian Who Killed Woman Pleads Guilty

Kaapana, the uxoricide, appeared before Judge Lindsay this morning and pleaded guilty to murder in the second degree. Judge Lindsay sentenced him to 25 years imprisonment at hard labor—and to pay the costs of court, amounting to $3.50.

Kaapana is the man who beat his paramour, a lei-woman, to death in Jack lane recently in a fit of drunken rage. On advice of his counsel W. L. Withington and Mr. Larnack he took 24 hours to think the matter over, and then decided to plead guilty. He is now 34 years old, so if he behaves himself well in jail and gets his sentence shortened according to law, he will be about 56 when he gets out.

Mrs. Elvira Smith, of Portland, Ore., writes that she entertained the "Lucky Seven" one afternoon and they were all glad to see somebody from Hawaii though the sight of her Hawaiian souvenirs made them homesick. They were well entertained during the week that they remained in Portland—Hawaii Herald.

KING'S BIRTHDAY

This being the birthday of the late King Kalakaua, a large Hawaiian flag flew from the flagstaff of Kapio-lani building. The day was, as usual, celebrated by a miniature yacht race in the harbor this morning. Seven yachts entered the race, which was won by the late King's own boat. A grand luau will be given at the home of Prince Cupid tonight.
